A.N.A. Aids Its Filipino Friends

More than 100 books and pamphlets were shipped to the Philippine Numismatic and Antiquarian Society by the American Numismatic Assn. recently. Robert G. McArthur, Oakland, Calif., chairman of the project, reports.

The A.N.A. sponsored the project earlier in the year to help the Philippine society—it lost all of its numismatic library during World War II.

Decision to sponsor the assistance came after A.N.A. officials headed by its president, Admiral O. H. Dodson, considered the facts that the Filipinos were our most loyal allies in World War II and among our best friends in Asia today.

Members of the Philippine society, with limited income, were unable to replace the loss of their books when Manila went up in flames. They have functioned without their library for the past 14 years.

Mint Master Goes To Jail

A Kongsberg, Norway, court sentenced the master of the Norwegian Royal Mint, Thor Hjulstad, to one year's imprisonment for stealing 47 kilograms (about 104 pounds) of silver.

Hjulstad, 47, who has been master of the Mint since 1949, told the court he stole the silver May 1. Police found it in a search of the Mint.

Police said during the inquiry that the silver belonged to the Norwegian Gold and Silver Refining Co., and was stolen from a refinery here which the company had taken over.

Victoria Medal Selling

"Place your order now to avoid disappointment for the Victoria centennial medal," officials of the Victoria Numismatic Society, Victoria, British Columbia, Canada, warn.

Orders will be accepted until the end of the year, or until the supply is exhausted. Mrs. Gladys Brown, 3166 Kingsley St., Victoria, will receive orders.

Put Penny In Purse

Any purse that is bestowed upon another as a gift should contain a coin in it to insure the recipient of a full purse, according to an old superstition.

Unproven 1943 Cents Grab News Spotlight

1943 'copper cent'

"I never saw a genuine 1943 copper cent—and I examine from one to three a week. I don't say there isn't such a thing—but I would not include any in a sale of mine!"

Thus in a paragraph Jim Kelly, who prepares "Coin Trends" for Coin World, president of World Numismatiques, Inc., Dayton, Ohio, dismissed the coin that is building false hopes in a wild wave across the nation.

Earlier Kelly made the same statement disallowing the copper version of the 1943 cent when he was interviewed on the Jana Demas show on WHIO-TV, a Dayton television station.

(Kelly also commented via TV upon commemorative half dollars, first charter notes of the Winters National Bank, in Dayton, and pioneer gold—plus the beauty of the Kettering, Ohio, holiday queen and her court. The young ladies shared the program with Kelly.)

Expert Kelly's concession to the fact that nothing is impossible was his statement that such a coin might remotely exist—but that if it did, it would represent "conniving" on the part of someone.

He pointed out that with the airtight security check at the Mint it was highly improbable any copper planchets were left around from 1942 for striking the few 1943 copper cents supposedly in existence.

A silver cent would be far more logical, Kelly said—it is conceivable a silver planchet of the same year could become intermingled with cent dies—but not last year's copper!

He described a long list of "gimmicks" used to create counterfeit 1943 copper cents—one of the hardest to detect is one struck with a die made to hold up for five or six amateur strikings before it breaks up.

"But the difference between 50 tons of pressure and three or five tons applied by the counterfeiters is immediately spotted by the man trained to look for this difference," Kelly said.

Coin Authority Walter Breen, who wrote "The 1943 Bronze Cents" in a February 20, 1960, issue of the Numismatic Scrapbook magazine, said a few 1942 bronze blanks had been inadvertently left in one of the hoppers at the Mint.

Steel planchets were dumped in on top of them, and nobody noticed the few bronze cents that were coined along with the steel cents. (War-time demand required the Mint to cut down on inspecting personnel) according to Breen.

He said in the Scrapbook he had only seen two genuine examples of the 1943 bronze cent and the 1944 steel cent.

He also cited fake methods of producing 1943's—copper plating, altering dates, casting, electrotyping, false dies hand-engraved and false dies produced by hubbing. (Continued on page 2)

Bogus French Francs Contain Mostly Tin

Counterfeiters have started passing bogus new French francs, according to a bulletin from Dieppe, France.

The first counterfeit five franc pieces were turned up by banks last week.

Officials said they were well made but contained mostly tin and have a flat sound when bounced on a hard surface.

Medals, Tokens Subject Of Limited Edition Book

"The 1959 United States and Canadian Commemorative Medals and Tokens" by Clifford Mishler—an edition limited to 300 copies—is on sale at $3.50 per copy.

The 92-page book, with its gold metallic cover, includes a 16-page 1958 supplement, 20 full page plates plus several other illustrations.

"At last collectors of medals, tokens and commemorative pieces see a glimmer of hope to an orderly continuation of their hobby in this painstaking and selfless contribution by Mishler," wrote Harry M. Lessin, American Numismatic Assn. counsel in a forward.

"Not since Kenney's has there been any attempt to list and describe striking and emissions that for many appear unannounced and soon become unobtainable or 'rare,'" Lessin continues.

Mishler, in commenting upon the listing, said he hoped he can make it an annual affair.

He stressed the limited edition factor—and disclosed that no more can be printed because the type has already been broken up.

The price of $3.50 is postpaid. Dealer inquiries are invited, Mishler said, for lots of six or more copies. His address is P. O. Box 187, Vandalia, Mich.

Mishler, who is 20, has lived in Michigan all of his life.

He attended Cassopolis high school and Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill.

A collector since 1952, he graduated from the United States coinage series to collection of United States and Canadian commemorative medals and tokens plus some foreign coin series.

(Currently he is concentrating on the pattern, trial and regular coinages of Liberia and Sarawak.)

Mishler is also in the process of building up a numismatic reference library.

After he transferred his interest to collecting commemorative medals and tokens, he realized how little literature was available on the subject, and how many pieces had never been listed.

The only work of recent years was the Kenney monograph on "So-Called Dollars," he discovered, and so he published a 1958 listing.

This is still available at 75 cents per copy.

Mishler is considering the publication of a monthly newsletter for those interested in the commemorative medal-token field.

Charter Deadline Soon

December 31 is the deadline for becoming a charter member of the newly-organized Blue Ridge Numismatic Assn., Inc. of South Carolina, Grady Sizemore, secretary, reminds.

The organization is planning its annual convention October 13-15 at Poinsett Hotel, Greenville, S. C.

First Commemorative

The first American commemorative coin was issued in 1892 in honor of the World's Columbian exposition in Chicago.

Design Is Stable

The design of any United States coin cannot be changed more than once every 25 years with the approval of congress.

Canadians Forced To Buy American Nickel

A strike and the ever-increasing demand for nickels has forced the Royal Canadian Mint to buy strips of nickel from the United States, Vintage and Mintage, official publication of the Victoria Numismatic Society, British Columbia, reveals.

These strips will be cut and stamped by the Mint in Ottawa, the club paper said.

Norval Parker, master of the Mint, said the strips had to be bought from the United States because shipments of unstamped coins were being held up in Britain by the wildcat strike of British seamen.

Increase in vending machines and refusal earlier this year of Canadian banks to accept American coins brought a great increase in the demand for five cent coins.

Parker said the British Mint produces 1,000,000 Canadian nickels in a normal year, but the number doubled this year.

They are not produced in Canada because there is no equipment to roll the pure nickel—despite the fact that 75 per cent of the world's raw nickel is produced in Canada.

Parker failed to disclose the quantity of nickel strips bought from the United States.

Bigger Bills In Twenty Years

Inflation and growing affluence in the United States in the last 20 years have brought a marked change in the composition of currency in circulation according to data compiled by the Federal Reserve board.

Half of the $32,000,000,000 of currency now outstanding consists of $20 and $100 bills against about one-third before World War II. The $20 bill represents just under a third of all currency in circulation and has supplanted the $10 bill in No. 1 rank.

Campaign Coins Copies Of Early Issue

A new type of political campaign advertising is catching the attention of coin collectors throughout the U. S.

"Campaign Coins" have been issued along the same general idea as the "Bryan Dollars" which were very popular political satirical pieces during the 1896 and 1900 campaigns of William Jennings Bryan.

These medals are not true coins, but are of high quality silver alloy, and have the appearance of a medal. They are just slightly larger than a silver dollar.

The coin for the Republican party shows sculptured busts of Presidential Candidate Richard Nixon and Henry Cabot Lodge, his running mate. The reverse shows the G.O.P. elephant saying, "We don't care how you vote.... just so it's Republican."

The Democratic coin has profile sculpturing of John Kennedy, the presidential candidate, and Lyndon B. Johnson, who is seeking the vice presidency, featured on the obverse. The reverse exhorts voters to "Put a Democrat in the White House." The Democratic donkey is also pictured.

These campaign advertising coins are being sold at $1 each and five coins for $4 through coin dealers and are also available by writing to "Coins" Box A, Sioux Falls, South Dakota. Additional information is also available by writing to the above address.

The coins were designed as a pocket souvenir for party stalwarts to carry as an indication of their support for a favorite candidate, but are turning into a very popular item with coin collectors as well.

Medal Struck In Honor Of Spanish Numismatists

A medal to commemorate the establishment of a family of professional numismatists would be expected to be of special interest — and the one struck to commemorate the 175th anniversary of the location of the Calico family at the Plaza del Angel in Barcelona, Spain, is no disappointment.

Since 1784 the Calico family has always occupied the corner building between Plaza del Angel and Calle de Tapineria, the property going from fathers to sons, dedicated to different branches of commerce until numismatics, at first the simple hobby of Don Jose Calico y Vives, became an exclusive profession.

The commemorative medal was ordered struck by the present owners, F. Xavier and Fernando Calico Rebull who inherited the firm through their father, Don Javier Calico y Bas.

During the 175 years which have passed, the physiognomy of the Plaza del Angel has changed a great deal, the brothers point out.

The old houses, pulled down by reforms, have been substituted by new ones; many of the streets which surrounded the square have disappeared; a great avenue, the Via Layetana, opened itself in the space left by those streets.

"Only thanks to the tenacity and hard work of our forebears, the Calico family has been able to continue to occupy the same premises, adapting itself to the new urban requirements, as circumstances have seemed it necessary," the brothers pointed out.

They disclosed that on commemorating this anniversary, so deeply rooted for them, they have chosen a medal to commemorate the efforts of their grandfathers—and they wish at the same time to equally honor so many generations of Barcelonese industrialists and traders who have been the authentic artificers of Barcelona.

There is a colorful story, too,

This commemorative medal was struck in honor of the 175th anniversary of the establishment of the Calico family at the Plaza del Angel in Barcelona, Spain—a famous name in the numismatic world. The obverse bears the angel which was placed in the Plaza and which is now kept in the Barcelona Historical Museum; the reverse displays the shields of Santa Coloma de Farnes and Barcelona. It is from the collection of P. K. Anderson, Golebo, Okla.

about the Calico family before it located at the Plaza de Angel. It begins on May 14, 1640, when the troops of His Majesty King Philip IV, if not with definite orders, at least with the placid consent of the sadly remembered Viceroy Don Dalmacio de Queralt, count of Santa Coloma, sacked the houses and farms of Sant Colom de Farnes, setting fire and burning down to the ground the most important of these — more than 30 in all — among them Calico Manor.

So ended one of the most ancient country seats of that area, since its existence can be proven documentarily, dating from the year 1281 when the lord of Calico Manor was Raimundus de Calico, son of Bernardo de Calico, whose lineage had been established in Santa Coloma at least since the year 1184.

After being burnt down, Calico Manor never recovered, and the family joined the urbane nucleus of the town of Santa Coloma de Farnes.

In the year 1745, Don Francisco Calico y Mullera, who had become an inhabitant of Barcelona, returned to Santa Coloma de Farnes on inheriting his brother Don Jaime, apostolic solicitor, and elder of his lineage.

Editor Discounts Cents

"Like our 1902 five-cent silver and five-cent tombacks, it is doubtful if the 1960 date varieties of the U.S. cents will ever have anything except speculative value," observed P. Degraff, editor of the Canadian Ottawa Coin Club's bulletin, as he discussed the small date cent craze "across the border."

Copper Cents...

"One quick test is to look at the VDB under the shoulder," Breen wrote. "This detail is not ordinarily subject to wear or abrasion. It should show up as well on the 1943 bronze as it does on the 1942, and if anything better than on a 1943 steel cent. On a forgery it will be inferior."

Meanwhile, there's a family of seven in Budd Lake, N. J., with a 1943 copper cent in the safety deposit box. They expect upward of $10,000. Bill Laughlin, Monroe, Ohio, has a $20,000 question in his mind as he looks at his 1943 copper cent. New Yorkers are checking with the United Press International — they all claim to possess 1943 copper cents.

Ray Chambers, Williston Park, Long Island, wouldn't sell his copper cent for $100,000. 17-year-old Frank Kullak, Flushing, says he has a 1943 copper cent. A man in Partridge, Kans., will take $7,500 for his. Roy Domingues, Mercedes, Texas, hunted for two days through a fruit jar and came up with a 1943 copper cent. Many people in the Passaic-Clifton, N. J., area told dealers of that region they had a 1943 copper cent. Donald Bivens, Mazon, Ill., found a 1943 copper cent in his change recently.

This is the second time the 1943 copper cent had caused a furor—in the late 1940's it was rumored the Ford Motor Co. would give a car for a genuine 1943 copper cent.

It kept both the Mint and the Ford officials plenty busy for a long time answering the inquiries and explaining there was no coin of that kind, and even if there was, the company was not giving a new car for one!

C.I.N.A. Show Is Set November 5-6

Scheduled for November 5 and 6 in Springfield, Ill., the fall festival of the Central Illinois Numismatic Assn. promises to exceed the record attendance of 2,978 at the spring convention, officials said today as they called their meeting the "best attended coin show in the United States."

C. W. Loud, president, and Walter McMann, general chairman of the show, said the entire fourth floor of the Abraham Lincoln hotel will give adequate space for the auctions, displays and bourse.

All of the important mid-west dealers will be on hand to greet their friends and associates with brisk trading activity promised, the officials said.

Highlighting each day's activity will be an auction of choice numismatic material including gold, proof sets, rolls of uncirculated coins and rarities. A type set of gold valued at $130 will be presented with special prizes every hour.

The committees—all veterans of five previous conventions—promise a smooth-running show.

There will be free admission, ample parking, excellent food and elevators, the convention officials promise.

Dealers are urged to get their reservations in by October 31; placement is held in order of the reservations received. Eight foot tables are $10. There will be special elevator service for dealers and their stock with police protection day and night.

Hotel reservations are to be made directly to the hotel.

Table reservations are received by Walter McMann, 2006 S. 11th street, Springfield, Ill.

Michigan Club Starts

Two Conventions At Once

Specialized numismatic organizations like the Collectors of Mint Errors have members scattered all over the nation. For their annual meeting each year they choose to meet during the A.N.A. convention and have found this to be popular among the members and successful for the organization.

Dick Johnson

On the other hand, the American Vecturist Association—a national organization of specialized collectors of transportation tokens—chooses to hold separate annual meetings. This year their convention was in Austin, Texas three weeks before the Boston event. However, more A.V.A. members were present at Boston than for their own convention in Austin!

This should point out an important fact to convention planners: two conventions at once are more successful.

Why is this? Obviously you have double drawing power. In the case of the A.N.A. convention, thousands of collectors are attracted because it is the national convention.

More members of both organizations will attend. Likewise more prospective members are present for the aggressive group who would like to do a little recruiting on the spot. Collectors are receptive when they are in a "coin frame" of mind during these gatherings.

Facilities, generally, are easily obtained. There is almost always a nearby meeting room. Opportunities for exhibiting your special interests will be viewed by more people. Promotion at conventions will pay off.

Combining conventions, attending two meetings with one trip is so obviously beneficial to every one concerned, it needs to be brought to all organization officials.

Our hats are off to the Detroit Coin Club, who have recognized this fact early, and are planning the dual conventions of the A.N.A. and the Canadian Numismatic Association in Detroit in 1962.

Personal Note

This week, my wife's name goes off the masthead above. A newspaper woman for four years, she has retired from active work on Coin World, staying home nursing a case of ulcers. As Shirley's name goes off, brings to mind that we would like to put several more up there.

This week we are seeking a classified advertising manager as you see by the ad to the right. Other positions are still open for writers, particularly a photographer-writer. One thing we can offer in addition to the prospect of ulcers is: lots of work.

Letters To The Editor

Speaking of mint errors—if your issue of Vol. 1, Whole No. 21 was Thursday, Sept. 9, it wasn't, because if it was Thursday the date was the 8th, and if it was the 9th it was Friday.

RE: Editorial about ethics on altered dates: Too bad these people cannot be placed in confinement. I bought an altered date 1914-D several years ago without knowing it. It came with a group of coins from Indianapolis, my home state, and I noticed it only when I got the coin out to send with an order.

They are so obvious that I wondered how I could have overlooked it. Fortunately I was not stuck much; they were cheaper then.

A short time ago I had a coin-buying ad in Linn's Stamp Weekly. In answer to this ad I received an altered date 1914-D from one whom I am sure was unaware that such a thing existed. I wrote him a letter of explanation, but he is sure to be disappointed.

Last winter I received an altered 1856 from a woman in the east. She had written about the coin previously, saying that it had been in the family for years. I was very disappointed this time. I wrote her a long letter of explanation since she was not a collector, and she accepted it in the right spirit.

Congratulations on the style of Coin World! You can find what you are looking for with a minimum of trouble in the classified section—something new in coin advertising!

Your news items are current also. Keep up your present pace and your circulation will continue to grow fast as it has so far.

M. C. Sauer

A lot of people are belittling the man who advertises circulated coins—and perhaps from dealings that they may have had in the past the coins were not up to expectations.

I for one advertise coins that are circulated, and because of the enormous amount of the time involved, people may have the impression that I sell culls.

That is far from the case. I do not buy coins that are corroded, mutilated, badly worn, bent or deeply scratched. Therefore I do not sell any in that condition, and anyone placing an order with me gets a fair shake and speedy service.

M. Simon

In response to the complaint by many collectors or investors that we in the east are robbing those in the western U. S. are quite forgetful of the not so far past when the Denver and San Francisco area were the hit of the ferment.

Pennsylvania coins were easy to come by. D and S Mint coins, 1909-S, 1909-SVDB, 1910-S, 1911-S and on and on, too many to enumerate, were and still are hard to come by. Off hand I can think of very few Philadelphia Mint coins that have become rare. Perhaps 1938-P W. quarters, 1914-15 halves and the small date cent so recently minted. It sure was rather one sided, but then things have a way of leveling off. Be of good cheer, our western friends, all comes to those who wait.

Coin World is in my world a most complete paper.

Israel Numismatic Society Grows Into Three Branches In 14 Years

Known the world over for its numismatic writings and research, the Israel Numismatic Society, founded in 1945, has grown into three branches—Jerusalem, Haifa and Tel-Aviv.

The percentage of members in rural districts, especially in the cooperative and collective villages, is ever increasing, Leo Kadman, president of the society, said as he surveyed the 14 years of the club's existence.

Serving with Kadman in administering the affairs of the society are Prof. M. Avi-Jona, Dr. A. Speer, of Jerusalem; Dr. E. W. Klimowsky, Dr. J. Meyshan, Arie Kindler, Dr. Flesch, Tel-Aviv; Nahum Shahaf, M. Kanitz, Haifa; M. Reshef, Kibbutz Betha-Alpha, with Dr. M. Flesch as honorary treasurer.

These numismatists form the central committee of the Israel Numismatic Society and were elected by the fourth convention in March, 1959.

Kadman and Dr. Meyshan were among the six founders of the society—they met with Architects David Nudelman, H. Pavel, Eng. D. and Mrs. Kissin May 10, 1945, to organize the society.

Most of the first members of the society were amateurs, collectors of ancient coins without any special knowledge of numismatics, but the first chairman, David Nudelman, was a learned and experienced numismatist, an expert in almost every branch of numismatics. He became the teacher and guide of the younger collectors.

This same spirit of encouragement to the science of numismatics is in evidence with the current club project—a fund for numismatic research.

Its purpose is to promote research and publications, to distribute numismatic scholarships,

Tel-Aviv is the host city for the lecture series sponsored annually by the Israel Numismatic Society. It was also the site of the 1952 and 1959 numismatic conventions sponsored by the society. Local branches exist in Jerusalem, Haifa and Tel-Aviv. Rural membership is increasing.

to participate in the erection of a numismatic museum, etc.

It is devoted solely to the promotion of scientific numismatic research; the expenses of the society are covered by membership fees alone.

With the beginning of activities of the new society back in 1945, the emphasis of the organization shifted more and more from unsystematic collecting of coins to learning about coins and their historical background.

It was natural that stress should be placed upon Palestinian and Jewish coinage.

Members of the society heard lectures by such learned scholars as the late Prof. A. Reifenberg and the late Dr. Stella Ben-Dor of the Hebrew University of Jerusalem, and Mordechai Narkiss, director of the Bezalel National Museum.

Later on the members of the society themselves began to lecture on various numismatic subjects. Each lecture was followed by a discussion in which the views and arguments of the lecturer were put to the test.

These sometimes became very lively and proved the best way to stimulate the members of the society to a systematic numismatic research, according to President Kadman.

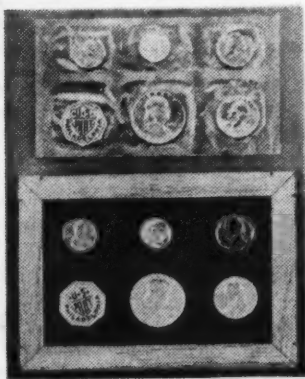

The club sponsored numismatic excursions to Caesarea, Tantura (the former Dora), Ascalon, etc.

Following the lectures and seminars a number of members devoted themselves to systematic research into specified numismatic subjects. Results of these individual projects were returned to the society meetings and were woven into a collective endeavor.

The first convention was held by the group March 30-31, 1951, in Haifa, and was devoted to the

Trends Of Today's Coin Values

Investment Buyer Depends On Collector

By Jim Kelly

333 W. First St., Dayton 2, Ohio

In our anxiety to make money, we must never lose sight of the fact that coin collecting is basically a hobby and not a necessity. The ultimate success or failure of the investment buyer depends on the collector and the continued growth of numismatics.

Jim Kelly

This can best be accomplished by belonging to and supporting the various coin clubs, nationally as well as in your own area, by doing your part to help the youngster or beginner get started right, and not by taking advantage of their inexperience and enthusiasm.

Also by your patronage of the reputable dealers who for years have been financing and are greatly responsible for the many conventions as well as educational books, catalogues and other equipment which did not even exist ten years ago.

Like charity, education should begin at home. Time invested in acquiring knowledge will pay large dividends without the danger of loss. Numismatics is enjoying a fantastic growth in popularity which can and will continue if a reasonable amount of prudence and common sense is exercised in the commercial aspect so that collector or hobbyist does not become discouraged or disgusted.

It behooves the investor, the speculator and the dealer to help support the hobby of numismatics if for no other reason than it is good business.

As Shakespeare might have said—"Don't kill the goose that laid the golden egg."

Next week we will put the soap box away and talk about rolls!

Coinarama Big Success; Over Thousand Attendance

Attendance that exceeded a thousand and an auction that netted a sales figure of more than $1,898 made the recent west coast Coinarama the most successful in history, according to a post-conclave report by Chairman Robert A. McCracken.

Coinarama was a joint enterprise of the San Diego county Inter-Club Numismatic Council and the seven county organizations. It was held at the U. S. Grant hotel.

Treasurer Leonel C. Panosh said prices on the auction reached a new high with most lots selling for full catalog and a few items went over list price.

Twenty-two exhibitors filled 43 cases with topnotch displays of numismatic material.

Best-in-show medal went to Le Roy Myers of Pomona for his extensive exhibit of U. S. currency and fractional currency.

In the junior division the best in show award was won by the Mount Miguel high school Numismatic club.

THANKS A MILLION TO 'COIN WORLD' READERS

WE WERE AMAZED AT THE WONDERFUL RESPONSE TO OUR BU ROLL MARKET IDEA OF A BUY AND SELL MARKET PATTERNED AFTER STOCK MARKET QUOTES.

Our idea is now in its 5th month and despite the fact our timing was wrong, since there always has been a lull in the numismatic business during the summer months, the response has been beyond our greatest hopes. I had no idea 'Coin World' could pull the business that came our way as a result of our first ad of this type in the August 11 issue.

It seems that there is a small segment of coin dealers who, for some reason or another, frown on dealers who handle rolls. I read an article in one of the publications in which one dealer, who handles mostly foreign material, was crying because, as he stated, most of the money invested in uncirculated rolls was being channeled out of business that had formerly been spent in Europe for foreign numismatic material. Now isn't that too bad? In other words, I suppose all we dealers who deal in rolls should get out of the business so the collectors and investors can spend their money for foreign material.

I would like to ask this group of dealers who frown on us roll dealers: Where and how would the collectors secure their coins for the various series had it not been for somebody with foresight enough to put up uncirculated rolls? I would also like to ask this group: Why should they be concerned about what material other dealers handle? Do they want to set up rules and regulations which would tell all the dealers what kind of material they should handle?

I have been called by other dealers "a roll dealer", but I deal in other material besides rolls. I operate a retail coin shop that is the largest coin shop in the state of Georgia and I believe about the largest coin shop in the Deep South. Some dealer may take issue with me on this but if I am wrong, I stand to be corrected. As a matter of fact, I like to handle a little bit of everything and I can say without fear of contradiction that my roll business does not constitute over 1/3 of my dollar volume of business. But I take no offense at being called a roll dealer and as a matter of fact I am sure I have been called other things worse. There is an old saying: "A hit dog will holler." So I just go on about my business and let the others holler and say what they want.

There is one thing for certain: It is a rat race in all fields and most of the dealers are trying to tell the other dealers how to run their business and how to price their merchandise but that won't work with me. As an example, one well known dealer jumped me about cutting prices on a certain standard item which carried a standard price. By chance, I picked up a little known publication that caters to collectors of almost everything under the sun, and this same dealer who criticized me was advertising a well known brand of plastic holders, which normally sell for $1.25, for $1.00. Now, if you want proof you can send a self-addressed stamped envelope and I will furnish you with the name of the dealer and the publication in which his ad was run.

I mention these things in order that you readers and collectors might know what's going on. There is a great jealousy among dealers and when one dealer is trying to sell at a moderate profit there are some greedy ones who resent it and tell him he should help keep the prices up. But there is one thing for sure, as long as I am personally paying for the merchandise that I sell I will price it as I want to and these other dealers can jump in the lake as far as I am concerned. If they want to go to war on prices, as I have said before, they can jump. They may break me, but I will guarantee them one thing: They will be bent pretty bad before the war is over. So my advice to them is to price their merchandise like they want to and leave me alone.

For the benefit of those new readers who did not see our first ad, here's how it works: We offer our roll merchandise at a certain price and we offer to buy at a percentage range of from 75% to 95% of our selling price. We state the quantity we are in the market for under the column which states "number of rolls wanted".

Write first before sending rolls or other material you offer to sell us. ANY INQUIRIES SHOULD BE ACCOMPANIED BY A SELF-ADDRESSED STAMPED ENVELOPE, OTHERWISE YOUR INQUIRY WILL NOT BE ANSWERED.

ALL ROLLS SOLD TO US MUST BE GEMS AND BRILLIANT UNCIRCULATED OTHERWISE THEY WILL BE RETURNED.

Postage and insurance extra on ALL orders. Georgia residents, add 3% Sales Tax. ALL prices subject to change without notice.

GOLD!

Gold is beginning to advance in price and the source of supply is getting low. We can still take care of our customers for the next 2 or 3 months but the prices are advancing. We still think we are the cheapest in the USA. The little man can still buy like the big man. On these coins, dates are of our choice. On large orders, allow one week for delivery. Add sufficient amount for postage and insurance as our margin of profit is very small.

Western Auction To Be Big

One of the most valuable individual coins ever to be offered for sale on the west coast—a rare Carson City Mint 20 cent piece—will be put up for bid at the 27th semi-annual convention of the California State Numismatic Assn. when it convenes at the U. S. Grant hotel in San Diego October 27 through 30.

William H. Smith, official cataloger and in charge of the auction, said this week that the 1876 CC 20 cent piece is one of the 14 known specimens and extremely rare. Its approximate value is $12,000.

Smith, who is also owner of the Eureka Coin Shop in San Francisco, has announced that there is an unusually large group of rare numismatic pieces listed in this year's auction.

They include, in addition to the 20 cent piece, an 1879 $4 gold piece, valued at approximately $3,000; a Pan Pacific $50 round gold piece, valued at about $3,500; a Pan Pacific octagon $50 gold piece, valued at approximately $2,000; a 1796 $2.50 gold piece, without stars, valued at about $2,000 and an 1808 $2.50 gold piece worth approximately $3,000.

Proof Sets Incomplete

Two Worcester, Mass., collectors who brought proof sets, unopened, from dealers, had a surprise when they checked them—Julie J. Wnukowski found his 1958 proof set had the quarter piece missing; later Harold G. Brule discovered a dime missing from his 1960 small date set. E. J. Vaskas, coin editor of the Worcester, Mass., Evening Gazette, now owns the Brule set. Other proof sets have been reported with two nickels and no cents, two cent pieces and no nickel. Omission of pieces is one more reason each proof sets should be checked. (Photos Worcester, Mass., Evening Gazette.)

Va. News Features Collectors

Ernest Via, 2048 Chase Ave., Waynesboro, Va., a coin collector since the days just after World War I, was featured in a recent feature story carried by the Waynesboro News-Virginian.

Via, who keeps his collection in the bank, says he hopes to get it in order, sell it and perhaps take a trip to Europe.

Albert Biel, comptroller of the American Furniture Co., was interviewed by a El Paso, Tex., writer for details of his 35-year collection of coins.

It contains representative coins from 137 countries and every century since the fifth one before Christ.

In discussing coin collecting as opposed to stamps, Biel said:

"Coins are not like stamps because all the stamps in the world are new compared to coins going back to before Christ. Coins contain the history of civilization and the field is so vast that one could spend a lifetime collecting only the coins of one emperor."

Mono Token Is Hope Of Seattle Club

Hope for a special token for Seattle's new mono rail for the American Vecturist Assn.'s convention in Seattle in 1962 were expressed at a recent meeting of the Seattle Transportation Token Club — the world's oldest public transportation token organization.

Clarence E. Heppner officiated. John Coffee described a telephone call from Emzy Thompson, Hagerstown, Md., and also told of three census tokens he had acquired — one of them an unlisted depotel.

George Gould reported on the new school token from Tacoma; Clarence Heppner displayed several rare tokens from his collection — NY 630 M, of which only two are known, Wisc. 510 G, and the unique pattern, Wash. 998 B.

Ivan Shirrod described his finds, a Neely's taxi token, unidentified No. 72, and a Wisc. 410 A, both in the parking meter collections at Pullman, Wash. He said he had learned that Neely's taxi had operated in Moscow, Idaho, used in the 1930's.

Plans were made for a September banquet at Hotel Hungerford during the session.

Mount Carmel Coins Are Purchased By Phoenix Man

Two coins—part of what has come to be known as the Mount Carmel treasure of Israel—are now in the collection of M. B. Goldman Jr., Phoenix.

The Mount Carmel treasure consisted of 4,560 Tyrean and Roman silver coins unearthed at Usfiya by a Druze farmer last winter.

It is believed that the coins may have been a tax collection sent from Jewish communities in Phoenicia to the Jerusalem temple treasury during the spring of the year 67 A. D.

Goldman read about the treasure in an Israeli newspaper. When Dr. Lorenz Anderson of Phoenix got ready recently to go to Israel to visit his brother, Bill, in Haifa, Goldman asked him to try and obtain some Mount Carmel coins—then selling at $1.50 each.

Dr. Anderson found the government had confiscated most of them but he located a dealer who had two available. He bought them for $15.

Shortly after Dr. Anderson returned to Phoenix with the coins, Goldman learned the coins were worth $150 in Israel.

Evergreen Club Plans Coin Fair

September 30, October 1 and 2 are red letter days for West Coast numismatists—those are the dates of the Evergreen Coin Club's Coin Fair at Elks' lodge, Centralia, Wash., according to J. G. Eberle, of Stevenson, Wash. the chairman.

The Elks lodge is located at 202 W. Locust street Eberle points out.

The bourse tables, displays, auctions and registrations, etc., will take place at the Elks' lodge, Eberle said but for "old-time sake," the banquet will be held at the Lewis and Clark Hotel, 117 West Magnolia St., Centralia.

This was the place of a meeting 20 years ago out of which the Evergreen Coin Club was born.

Twenty years ago, Eberle said, the Seattle, Wash., Coin Club and the Portland (Ore.) Numismatic Society decided to hold a joint meeting.

The Evergreen Coin Club of the Twin Cities, Chehalis—Centralia, Wash., is not to be outdone by the service clubs—it is listed on the billboard at the outskirts of the city. (See fourth square down on left.) Current activity of the organization is the sponsorship of a Coin Fair September 30, October 1 and 2, to be combined with a 20-year anniversary celebration.

"Highways and cars not being what they are today, they met at the half-way point—Centralia, Wash.," Eberle said.

The initial meeting was a success, and it was voted to make it an annual affair; within a few years the group included collectors from other parts of the two states and from neighboring states. The numbers increased.

Local interest in collecting coins was a natural by-product, and so the Evergreen Coin Club was formed.

It was also evident, Eberle said, that more than just a so-called joint meeting was needed, so the Pacific Northwest Numismatic Assn. was born.

"Twenty years later" is to be the theme of the Evergreen Club's Coin Jamboree.

There will be a minimum of 300 lots or each of the two auction sessions; there will be at least 20 bourse tables and a banquet stressing the "then" and "now."

Evergreen members are making an attempt to bring back all of those who attended the first meeting—Coin World readers who were present are asked to send their present address to Mrs. Chris Petersen, R. R. 1, Chehalis, Wash., along with a brief statement of their outstanding memories of early meetings held in Centralia.

Officials of the jamboree along with Eberle, who recently moved to Stevenson, include "Cub" Balmelli, Evergreen Coin Club president, R. R. 3, Box 133-A, Chehalis, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Lowe of the Tacoma Stamp and Coin Club, 944 Commerce, Tacoma, 2, Wash.; Robert Burgraff, Lowden, Wash. auctioneer; Mrs. Chris Petersen R. R. 1, Box 27, Chehalis, Wash., secretary-treasurer of the Evergreen club.

Paul Fouts Seattle, will be the master of ceremonies with John Slusher, Portland, as the guest speaker. Other special guests at the banquet will be presidents from the Seattle and Portland Clubs; Charley Speight, Springfield, Ore., the P.N.N.A. president, with a special table to be reserved for old timers.

Steven Bibler, of Seattle, is historian—he has information from all of the early meetings plus his own account of the meeting 20 years ago—he was there!

Gold Is Theme Of Norwalk, Calif., Club

"Gold" was the theme of the recent meeting of the Norwalk (Calif.) Coin Club when it met at the La Mirada Women's Club.

The talk and the special prizes were "gold." The auction was limited to five lots per person. There was a special dealer's display for sale.

New $5 Variety Adds Interest To Canadian Series Of Bank Notes

By Harold Don Allen

MONTREAL, Quebec—After 10 weeks of studies and numismatic jaunts in the eastern United States, the writer returned to Canada the Friday before Labour Day (Canadian spelling!), headed for his bank, cashed a cheque, ruffled through the bills, and discovered a major new variety of a common Canadian note.

The blue five dollar bill bore the imprint of Canadian Bank Note Co., Ltd., the well-known Ottawa firm of security printers. The change was a subtle one, but to students and collectors it is likely to prove of considerable interest, for it breaks a precedent set by close to half a billion Bank of Canada fives since 1935.

All other fives have been printed by British American Bank Note Co., Ltd., Ottawa, a Canadian-owned commercial firm responsible for some of this country's most famous postage stamps and early notes.

While, in a way, the change was as startling as if Lincoln's picture were put on a United States one, it was not as obvious. The writer could find in Montreal no dealer or collector who was aware of the new inscription and its implication.

Canadian collecting at present strongly emphasizes decimal coinage, with considerable preoccupation with minor varieties, while serious interest in bank notes is restricted to a studious few.

The new variety stems from a policy introduced with the founding of the central bank, the Bank of Canada, in 1935, that the contract for printing the paper currency (and the central bank soon was to have a monopoly of issue) would be split among Canada's private firms.

From the first issue, dated 1935, the job was divided between Canadian Bank Note Co., Ltd., a wholly-owned subsidiary of American Bank Note Co., New York, and British American Bank Note Co., Ltd., the pioneer Canadian firm.

The division was a simple one, that all notes of $2, $5, and $10 denominations would be printed by British American, while Canadian Bank Note would enjoy a monopoly of the other values, the $1, $20, $50, $100, $1,000—and, in the 1935 issue at least, the rare $25 and $500.

Throughout the 1935 issue, and the long-lived 1937 series (17 years), the policy was adhered to, and collectors could find no varieties in the imprints.

It was no surprise, then, when the same division of values was used in the Queen Elizabeth issue of 1954. Indeed, the president of Canadian Bank Note, D. M. Coolican, confirmed for this writer in December, 1958, that this was a policy that up to then had strictly been adhered to, "but, of course could be changed at any time."

The big change came in the spring of this year, when $1 notes were found with the British American imprint. Then, in early September, the Canadian Bank Note $5; Collectors likely will be watching the $2, $10, and $20 values, which would be quick to reflect changes in the printers of these denominations. The understanding is that a number of denominations now will be produced by both plants.

The new fives, which bear S-C serial numbers, carry a new sequence of obverse and reverse plate numbers, reverting to unity but prefixed by the letter C.

The five-dollar denomination of the Bank of Canada 1954 series varieties, involving the two sets of signatures and the retouched "devil in the queen's hair" vignette. Regular and replacement ("asterisk") series are known for all types.

1960 SMALL DATE

It was quite a bargain . . . Attention all collectors who recently purchased combination of proof sets from

HOLBERT WESTON HART

The mint-sealed proof set included in the combination you purchased from us during June and July is the small date 1960. Suggest all lucky buyers open their sets to check.

We discovered this only after we had sold many sets. This is only another reason why "mint-sealed" is a ridiculous term. It only means that you can't see what you are buying. Or maybe it's only sour grapes???

Foreign Coins, Visitors Meet Columnist's Approval

It was wonderful to meet so many of you at the A.N.A. convention in Boston, and I was happy to see that our's was a numismatic convention. Bags and rolls were hardly noticeable. I have sent a report to the board of the I.A.P.N., the international organization, and have told them that there isn't any reason to worry. American coin collectors will stay with real coins, with real numismatics. That was the great surprise of Boston. Also, there were so many more foreign coins exhibited and offered for sale than at any other convention. You are all realizing that foreign coins are the big "thrill" of numismatics.

Hans Schulman organization, and have told them that there isn't any reason to worry. American coin collectors will stay with real coins, with real numismatics. That was the great surprise of Boston. Also, there were so many more foreign coins exhibited and offered for sale than at any other convention. You are all realizing that foreign coins are the big "thrill" of numismatics.

This column does not have room to describe or discuss all of the beautiful exhibits with foreign coins because I have too many letters here with questions to be answered.

The foreign visitors at the convention who came from far across our borders were: David Spink, Peter Seaby, G. E. Hearn, Mr. and Mrs. Mueller, all from England, and Victor Lanz, Mexico.

I have been asked to report to you on counterfeits, on foreign postal regulations, on shipping foreign coins abroad, on platinum coins, and on what to do when parcels get lost. In the next weeks, all these matters will be taken up.

I can now report that the coin of Andorra, 50 diners, 1950, will soon be released. These will be struck in Germany and be distributed from Amsterdam. The coin will retail for $7.50 or $10. The issue is in nickel-silver, representing the old silver dollar, and will only total 3,000 pieces. We will follow the news from tiny Andorra, high up in the Pyrenees weekly as it comes.

We welcome back from many years abroad, C. V. Dantoni with his charming wife. Their hobby is odd and curious money and they hope to form an odd and curious numismatic society as soon as they settle down in Washington. What about this, Mr. Gibbs?

Talking about odd and curious money, the dean of this series is Howard D. Gibbs of Pittsburgh, Pa., who has a collection valued at a fourth of a million dollars, and for which an enormous space is needed to exhibit. It is one of the most fascinating collections in the world and we hear that Mr.

Gibbs is contemplating selling it to the proper party.

This collection belongs in a museum or a bank and would be the real attraction in any city for young and old. A bank could make a main large exhibit for permanent display and 12 rotating exhibits for their branches without diminishing the basic exhibit or its value. Our informants tell us that several parties are interested in the East, the West and abroad.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Horowitz of numismatic fame are leaving for Scandinavia on a three-week holiday and we are told that they expect to bring back some im-

Reagan To Be Guest Speaker

Lewis Reagan, general secretary of the American Numismatic Assn., will be guest speaker at the Saturday night banquet of the Colorado - Wyoming Numismatic Assn.'s ninth annual convention September 30-October 2, Ralph F. Cleaver, president of the Zebulon Pike Coin Club, announces.

The Zebulon organization has planned a special pre-convention session on Thursday, September 29, at 2411 West Colorado Ave., according to Cleaver. There will be bourse tables, refreshments and awards.

This meeting will serve as a welcome to visiting delegates. Doors will open at 6 p.m. Bourse tables are free on a basis of first come, first served.

The Alamo Hotel, 126 South Tejon St., Colorado Springs, is the location of the Colorado-Wyoming Numismatic Assn. convention.

There will be entertainment, prizes, bourse tables, coin displays and auctions along with sight-seeing tours.

"Plan to be present for a collecting thrill of a lifetime," say convention sponsors as they point to the top quality coins to be offered at the two-session auction and the extensive displays that will vie for top honors in such fields as U. S. silver, currency, foreign coins, tokens, medals and educational displays.

Art Stems From Politics

How money could be made in the sale of medallion art and campaign gadgets in the Abraham Lincoln campaign just 100 years ago is the subject of a rare sales circular just purchased by the Library of Congress in Washington.

An advertisement of Hunt & Miner, Pittsburgh wholesalers, was sent to retailers with this "come-on" at the bottom of the first of its three printed pages:

"Now is the time for agents to make money. Millions of the above are being sold. Agents are making from five to 25 dollars a day."

The Hunt & Miner line included campaign songs, campaign books pins, scarf pins, pocket pieces, campaign songs campaign baooks and portraits for all four tickets running in 1860.

Two Abraham Lincoln items, the rail splitter pin and the parlor portrait, commanded the highest suggested retail prices of all the items offered, at reduced prices, to agents.

The full-length portrait of Lincoln, "elegantly gotten up in the best style of mezzotint, of a suitable size for a parlor picture," could be bought for $1.25 to retail at $3 as a mezzotint. In India proof ink it cost $2.25 to retail at $5; in colored, $3.25 to retail at $6.

The rail splitter pin, heavily gold-plated, "consisting of one set of posts and rails, an appropriate design," could be bought wholesale for 25 cents, to retail at $1.

Less expensive was the "rail splitter pocket piece," a medallion "just the size of a five dollar gold piece." It came in three varieties—copper, wholesaling at 4 cents and retailing at 12½; bell-metal, wholesaling at 3 cents and retailing at 12½; and gilt, on which Hunt & Miner forgot to put a price.

The description of the pocket piece ran:

"On one side bust of Lincoln with name; reverse, Lincoln splitting rails in sight of his homestead: the 'Little Giant' a spec-

Gold Is Topic For Union Club

The rapidly-expanding Union County (N. J.) Coin Club heard a discussion on American gold coins by Samuel Rosenberg, of Union, at its session at the Polish National Home, Linden, N. J. Fifty-four members and guests heard Rosenberg discuss the gold coins with emphasis on those engraved by the artist-sculptor, St. Gaudens.

A coin auction conducted by Kenneth Morrison followed.

Future meetings will be held at the Polish National Home the fourth Tuesday of the month at 8 p.m., D. R. Swayze, publicity director, announces.

Additional information concerning the club may be obtained from Lee Goodman, 653 Colonial Arms road, Union, or Donald Swayze, 47 Sayre street, Elizabeth, N. J.

This campaign medal was used by Abraham Lincoln in his initial fight for the presidency. It bears the nude, profile bust of Lincoln on the obverse with a rural scene showing him splitting a log on the reverse.

An example of a rail splitter pin used in campaigning 100 years ago by Abraham Lincoln.

A draped and bearded bust of Lincoln cut in high relief was used in a political medal for Lincoln's second campaign. The reverse is inscribed with "The constitution as it is and 'the hope of the Union.'"

Political Arts...

tator. Inscription "The Railsplitter of the west."

The "Little Giant", of course, was Lincoln's most formidable opponent, Stephen A. Douglas, Illinois Democrat.

Medals for all four parties, in nine different sizes, carried a tincture of the presidential candidate on the one side and of the vice-presidential candidate on the other. Prices ran from 7 to 12 cents wholesale, 23 to 37½ cents retail.

In addition to the Republican and Democratic parties, a Constitutional Union party, headed by John Bell, and a splinter Democratic party, headed by John C. Breckinridge, were in the field.

The sales circular was saved, in an envelope with a bill from the wholesalers, by F. Seas of Orville,

Ohio, a retailer who had ordered some of the supplies.

It was purchased by the library from a dealer through a legacy left by the late Alfred Whitall Stern of Chicago, and joins his collection in the Rare Book Room.

David C. Mearns, Lincoln expert of the library staff, declined to say how much had been paid.

Colo Token Brings Out Good Old Days

A horse-drawn sled bearing a huge stove to keep the passengers warm is the colorful figure behind an intriguing and rare token, Colo 380 A, according to Edgar Levy, Colorado Springs, Colo., in The Fare Box news-letter for collectors of transportation tokens.

The token was used on an auto bus in the summer and a horse-drawn sled in the winter from November 1924, to March, 1927.

It ran from Fraser, Colorado, to the west portal of the tunnel, a distance of five and a half miles with about 12 to 18 passengers carried each trip.

The owner adds:

"Our sled had a huge stove inside to keep us warm, as we had to travel often in 40 to 50 below zero weather. After a heavy snow we had four horses; otherwise, two, and we always got there, although sometimes late when we had unusually bad weather.

"We made three round trips daily in order to meet each change of shift."

150th anniversary of her proclamation of independence from Spain.

The 1810 independence movement was led by a priest, the Rev. Miguel Hidalgo, who rebelled against the Spaniards and rallied thousands of Mexican peasants from the mountainous north-central region of Guanajuato to fight against the Spanish garrisons.

On the night of September 15, 1810, in the small town of Dolores in Guanajuato the insurgent group issued the first declaration of Mexican independence.

The Rev. Miguel Hidalgo cried "Viva Our Lady of Guadalupe! Down with bad government and death to the Spaniards!" The declaration is now known as the Cry of Dolores.

Mexico did not win final independence from Spain for several years after 1810, but the 1810 declaration was the crucial turning point.

Father Hidalgo is the George Washington of Mexico. The town of Dolores in Guanajuato is now Dolores Hidalgo. Streets named after the priest and statues of him can be found everywhere in Mexico.

The 150th independence celebration this year was of special importance. There were fiestas and street dances and public buildings were illuminated in the red, white and green national colors. The traditional military parade in Mexico City was the biggest ever held there.

The United States has announced that a delegation led by Secretary of State Christian A. Herter attended the celebration. The United States Military Academy at West Point and the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis sent cadets to march in the September 16 parade.

On September 15 postage stamps bearing the design of the Mexican (Continued on page 28)

House Offered For Brockage

George E. Hoffman, 51, of Chicago, has found a 1960 cent with the head of Lincoln on both sides of the coin—a numismatic error worth $2.

Hoffman, a collector for 10 years, found the mint error in a bag of 5,000 coins he bought from a Charlotte, N. C. coin dealer. The coins came from the Philadelphia Mint.

Hoffman said he already has been offered a $30,000 house and $10,000 in cash for the coin, classed as brilliant and uncirculated.

The Chicago Tribune carried the following description of the coin:

On the "head" side, the penny bears the image of Lincoln, but it is faint, and "LI" of "Liberty" is deleted, "In God We Trust" is unreadable, and the zero in "1960" is damaged.

On the "tails" side, the image of Lincoln is superimposed over the picture of the Lincoln memorial.

The coin is about one-half the usual thickness, but is of about the same weight. Hoffman said the coin probably became jammed when it was struck in the mint."

Credit Card Completes A Cycle

Dale Bolen combined his two favorite hobbies—numismatics and photography—to design a handsome color cover for the August issue of the Greater Tulsa, Okla., Finance issue, official publication of the Tulsa Chamber of Commerce.

Drawing from his experience as an avid coin collector, Bolen depicted the evolution of America's monetary exchange system, beginning with the nail, the first unit of money used by the colonists.

He included the states, the United States and on through private coinage up to the present day standard—the credit card!

"We are back where we started with the private individual issuing a monetary unit that is redeemable only at his establishment," mused Bolen.

Bolen, who is a member of the Service Pipeline Co. staff, photographed the units of exchange in black and white. He screened them with just the right intensity of shading to give them their actual tone when reproduced in color.

Born in Tulsa 25 years ago, Bolen has an impressive artistic background which includes scholarships and prizes.

He works with the Service Pipeline Co. publication, "Connecting Rod," internal and external promotions and planning and design of visual aids for conferences.

Columbus Club Names Fred Kern As Life Member

Fred E. Kerns, Columbus, Ohio, numismatist, has been named life member No. 3 in the Columbus Numismatic Society—the third such honor bestowed by the organization in 54 years.

Kern now holds life membership in five clubs including the American Numismatic Assn., the Central States, Arkansas and Ohio Valley organizations.

He is also affiliated with the Ohio State Numismatic Society, the Penna-Ohio Numismatic Society and the Iowa Numismatic Society.

He owns and operates Kern's Coins and Currencies, 2625 Ferris Road, Columbus.

The Columbus Numismatic Society was organized in 1906 and reorganized in 1932. The late Dr. J. M. Henderson, past A.N.A. president, helped organize it in 1906 and again in 1932 with George Andrews, Sam Kabelo and the late Fred Burton.

Mrs. Cora Henderson, wife of Dr. Henderson, holds life membership No. 1, and George Andrews, No. 2. Mr. Andrews is a past vice president of A.N.A. All three of the life members are living.

The Columbus organization holds No. 4052 in A.N.A., and has aided the national association a great deal, according to Kern. Dr. Henderson was a tireless worker until his death in 1942. George Andrews and Kern are carrying on this tradition of A.N.A. support.

Kern is a district secretary for this area.

Bowers Is Located In New Firm

Bowers Coin Co., Inc., owned and operated by Q. David Bowers, located at 70 Court street, Binghamton, N. Y., is a new firm, the outgrowth of a recent partnership split in the Empire Coin Co., Inc.

James F. Ruddy, Bowers' former partner, retained the name of the Empire Coin Co., and the business site in Johnson City, N.Y.

Bowers, who is known in the numismatic world for his writing as well as his commercial enterprise, has been actively engaged in numismatic research—in addition to operating a coin business—since 1955.

His special interest has been colonial and state coins. He is at present preparing a comprehensive treatise classifying die varieties of Massachusetts cents and half cents of 1787 and 1788.

He is planning to write a house magazine tentatively entitled "The Bowers Review" with the first issue to be ready in October. It will contain articles, comments, items for sale, etc.

Bower has a complete selection of U. S. coins at his Binghamton coin center with most of his inventory concentrated on coins before 1940. He attends most of the conventions each year.

He has been a contributor to various reference books and numismatic articles and has been on the contributing staff of the Guidebook and Handbook each year. He will be associate editor of the new Standard Catalogue of United States Coins to be published by John Ford early next year.

New Jersey Collector Turns Handsome Profit

A 12-year-old Trenton (N. J.) coin collector turned a one-cent purchase into a 1,000 per cent profit—on a pretzel at that!

Mark Deitz paid a nickel for a pretzel at a recent Little League ball game. He found an 1877 Indian head cent in his change. He sold it to a dealer for $10.

Ten Pennies Are Winning Friends In Areas Abroad

Members of the unique Ten Pennies Coin Club, organized from personnel at the Union Trust Co., St. Petersburg, Fla., have their own "People-to-People" program in progress.

One of the bank staff has just returned from a visit to her home in Hawick, Roxburghshire, Scotland.

While she was there she had a "coin searching party" in her neighborhood to look for coins for the Ten Pennies. She brought back a sack full of very choice coins dating back to 1799.

"She felt good to be bringing a precious bit of her Robert Burns' Scotland to St. Petersburg, Fla.," reports M. Alice Bisbee, founder of the Ten Pennies.

"She has won our hearts with this bit of thoughtfulness on her part and her father is going to continue to look for pennies," dates we need and will send to her for us. The tie that binds!"

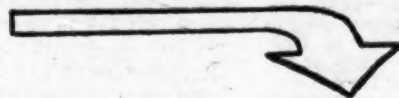

A local St. Petersburg paper is sponsoring a "Cuban Letter" project, she reports. A letter is written by a St. Petersburg resident to a resident in Havana. They are forwarded in bundles by the newspaper.

The Ten Pennies have received a collection of Cuban cents from one of the bank employees in Cuba as a friendship gesture.

"The good will accomplished is endless, and is only limited by the time we have to participate in this lobby," the Ten Pennies spokesmen said.

"We are very proud and appreciative of the attention we have received—and it has spurred us on to greater collections," she said.

Ruddy Buys Building In Eastern City

James F. Ruddy, known coast to coast for his mail order business in rare coins, announces a tentative November 1 date for the opening of a complete hobby center in downtown Johnson City, N.Y.

Ruddy purchased the three-story building he occupies at 252 Main street, Johnson City, several weeks ago to expand and to facilitate handling of affairs of his firm, the Empire Coin Co., Inc.

Acquisition of the real estate is the second big decision in Ruddy's career this year—earlier Ruddy and Q. David Bower split their partnership in the Empire Coin Co., Inc.

Ruddy retained the name of the Empire firm and its business site; Bower organized a new company—the Bowers Coin Co., Inc., in Binghamton, N.Y.

Ruddy's hobby center—one of the largest in the east—will cater to the "professional hobbyist." Two floors will be filled with coins, stamps, mosaic tiles, ceramics, model trains and other hobby supplies.

Ruddy will continue to publish "Empire Topics," a house organ circulated to his clientele all over the country.

New Quarters For Coos Club

The Coos County (Ore.) Coin Club will meet at the Coos Bay Courtel the second Sunday of the month at 2:30 p.m., according to Russell Stillman, secretary-treasurer of the club. This is a new meeting site.

The club, founded in 1956, has 47 members. Its address is Box 800 Coos Bay, Oregon.

Members enjoyed a picnic September 11 at the Jesse M. Honeyman State Park, near Florence, in place of the regular business section.

The picnic attracted not only Coos county collectors, but also drew guests from the Eugene-Springfield clubs. An auction followed the picnic.

First meeting of the club in its new quarters will be October 9 at 2:30 p.m.

Members brought their small cent collections for comparison during the talk. Bob Jones was also a speaker for the program.

Results of the playground coin treasure hunt, a club project, was announced in the club bulletin recently. Nineteen youngsters from six playgrounds were winners.

The August session was marked by brisk trading following the general meeting. Peter Scharman was presented with the coin prize.

The executive board of the club is in the process of setting up committees for the annual March banquet, according to Bill English, editor of the news bulletin of the Waterloo society.

East Coast Police Search For Pond Loot Listed Here

Coin dealers, pawn shops, second-hand dealers, etc. have been alerted by Winchester, Mass., police to watch for thousands of dollars in numismatic loot stolen from the home of Mrs. Shepherd Pond in Winchester during the recent American Numismatic Assn. convention in Boston.

Mrs. Pond, who stayed at the Statler Hilton hotel during the convention, was one of the key officials for the affair. When she returned to her home, she found $9,000 in coins and other numismatic items missing, a trail of blood everywhere—and even her lists of coins were missing!

The blood came, it is theorized, after the burglar cut himself as he entered a glass-enclosed room.

"Any information you may obtain to the location and recovery of the following articles and the apprehension of the culprit or culprits will be gratefully received," Chief of Police Joseph J. Derro said as he enlisted the pages of Coin World in the search.

The Winchester Police Department address is 30 Mount Vernon St., Winchester, Mass. The telephone number is PA 9-1212.

The list issued by the police is as follows:

Ancient Syrian weight inscribed letters uniface, oblong in shape, patinated bronze. Only one known. Identified through the courtesy of the American Numismatic society and Mabel Lang, head of the classical department at Bryn Mawr college.

Waterloo medal by Pistrucci, superb piece five inches in diameter in silver extremely rare. Obverse, heads of four rulers, Alexander of Russia, Francis of Austria, George of England, Frederick Wilhelm, German, all opponents of Napoleon. Reverse, Wellington and fighting men. Velvet-lined case of Benjamin Franklin Boston school medals, plus four or five more in envelopes. All in silver and rare. The obverse of these medals inscribed "Gift of Franklin" and bore the device "crossed pens above an open book."

The reverse was dated 1792 (first date) and dates went on to other years and inscribed "Adjudged by the school committee as a reward of merit to"—then the recipient's name was inscribed.

Pine tree shilling.

Colonial script, fractional currency, uncut sheets of Rhode Island and New Hampshire.

Two gold medals of Pope John XXIII, plus many papal silver medals dating back to late 1600's.

S. Spinner $2 bills. Harvard university medal silver and a Harvard lottery ticket dated 1637 the latter very rare.

Sir William Phipps silver medal. He was the first royal governor of Massachusetts Bay Colony appointed in 1692. His first official act was terminating witchcraft prosecutions. This is a rare medal.

Two English Maundy sets, English crowns and dollars, silver.

Lincoln and Washington medals.

Schulman Reports...

portant U. S. numismatic items. Our dynamic Abner Kreisberg is taking his pretty wife all around the world with stops in the Middle East and India before joining Sidney Olsen, of Akron, Ohio, in Japan. Sidney has made so many business trips to Japan, that his friends expect him to soon be more at home in Tokyo than in Akron. So the Kreisbergs will have a good teacher! We want to hear what they learned!

Auction sale news: October 5, and following, the Milton Holmes collection is to be sold by Stack's of New York. A marvelous catalogue is just out, rich in foreign coins (1500 gold). Don't forget to attend or have a New York friend represent you at the sale. According to P.N.G. and I.A.P.N. regulations, representatives can only charge 5 per cent commission and postage and insurance.

November 19, the Howard D. D. Gibbs collection of counter-stamped coins of the British Isles and Colonies will be sold at the Waldorf Astoria hotel with Donald D'Amato auctioneer. This one-day session is the largest private collection of counterstamped coins of Britain ever assembled. A limited issue catalogue will be printed to be sent only upon request.

One of the most exciting coin stories is coming soon from behind the Iron Curtain. How a collector is risking his life to save a collection of rare platinum coins, his only transferable possession. Too early to report yet, as we do not want to endanger him or his family.

Thieves galore are watching our profession! In the last year we know of two most unusual thefts of coins not yet solved. A collection of silver dollars with a value of $10,000, but declared only for $5,000 was sent by registered mail from Switzerland to Pittsburgh. It never arrived and the Swiss insurance company had to pay. A similar shipment of gold coins to Los Angeles, fully insured for $3,000, never reached the West coast. Another shipment, $1,000, from New York to Bogota, Columbia, never reached its destination and numerous small parcels have been lost both in the U.S.A. and abroad.

My suggestion is to fully insure with your own insurance broker, and declare a lower valuation to the postoffice. Pack in more than one parcel, use registered or certified mail, and pack well. For large parcels, use the railway express agency and declare as much as you can afford. Report your postal losses to your coin club, local dealer, etc. to see if there is a pattern of theft. In many cases, the thefts will stop.

When shipping abroad, use the air freight companies for certain countries, or use a transfer agent in Switzerland. No postal losses were ever reported when coins were sent to R. Haller, St. Albansvorstadt 17, Basel, Switzerland, for reshipment to France, Italy, Spain, Austria, all countries behind the Iron Curtain and to all Scandinavian countries. Shipments to England, Belgium, Holland, Germany, Portugal do not risk anything.

In South America only shipments to Uruguay and Peru are safe; all others have a long list of difficulties either with customs or with the postoffice. In Africa and Asia, it is difficult to rely on shipments. Beirut and Hongkong are fairly safe, but in general I suggest you use the air freight companies. Canada and Curacao are also countries with few complications for coins, but in general the world over, numismatics have to be watched in order to avoid loss, theft and custom difficulties.

problems of Jewish coinage. Next May a convention was held in Tel-Aviv. It dealt with "Coins of the Ancient Cities of Palestine." The third convention, devoted to the subject of "2,000 Years of Coins in Jerusalem," assembled in that city June 26-27, 1953.

The fourth convention was held in Tel-Aviv March 20-21, 1959 where the principal discussion subject was "Numismatics and Historical Research."

At each convention, attended by nearly a hundred scholars and collectors, there was an exhibition of coins and books dealing with the convention subject and a series of lectures.

A series of numismatic studies and researches and the Corpus Nummorum Palestinensium — to be 18 volumes upon completion, are the projects of publications under the auspices of the society.

The society's library, started with the numismatic books of David Nudelman, is being gradually enlarged; the society acquires large quantities of coins in order to facilitate the enlargement of individual collections.

It is a member of the international numismatic organization and will send delegates to the Rome International Numismatic Congress.

The society has established and maintains international numismatic cooperation in identification of Jewish and Palestinian coins.

Soviets Open New Gold Mine In Far North; No Production Figures Given

The Soviet Union may have the northernmost gold field in the world—but it gives no hint of its production in terms of rubles or dollars!

It is a place called Bilivino in desolate eastern Siberia above the Arctic circle. Bilivino is not even on the maps yet.

But already it is a center for gold dredging operations in the valley between the Big and Little Anyu rivers east of Nizhni-Kolymsk, almost on the shore of the East Siberian sea.

Bilivino, scarcely four years old, is still a log cabin and tent town, reports a visitor from the magazine Ogonyok.

However, its chief administrator, Aleksandr Kupavtsev, proudly displays a model of what the town someday will be—a town hall, clinics, a school, an assay office to serve the expanding fields for fifteen miles around.

The town is named for Yuri Bilivin, a Leningrad geologist who is credited with discovering a number of gold fields.

Bilivino is a constant struggle between man and nature, says the Ogonyok reporter.

The men and women settlers live in tents lined with paper or plastic to keep warm or in crude log cabins.

The countryside is rolling with low foothills. The ground is covered with muskeg, best described as a material that cannot make up its mind whether to be land or water.

Trucks traveling over the ill-defined roads to the gold mine workings frequently become mired where the buggy ground dips into underground streams.

The Ogonyok reporter visited one of the workings about 12 miles from town. He was offered a horse but chose a truck. He was sorry afterward. The truck bogged down en route.

The first gold came out of the area a little more than a year ago.

The workings themselves in what the settlers call "The Golden Valley" are still crude affairs.

But soon, it is promised, powerful new dredges are to be delivered to the valley and the new frontier will go into systematic production.

Despite the primitive living and inconveniences, Bilivino has at least one thing in common with all Soviet communities—a party boss.

His name, for the record, is V. Krainov.

Collector Is Good Prospect

Attention: Insurance salesmen men.

Next time you sell a homeowner's policy, ask the client if he owns any numismatic property.

If he does, you might be able to land a little bonus sale. Most homeowner's covers a small part of this type of property, so if your client owns in excess of that amount, he needs additional coverage.

Usually the client isn't aware that insurance is even available for his coin collection.

This guidance came in the form of a bulletin contained in the Northwestern Banker, Des Moines, Iowa.

A.N.A. Report For East Bay Club

"Bostoniana—My First Trip To Beantown" was presented by Lewis A. Moorman for members of the East Bay Coin Club, Oakland, Calif., for their September 9 session at Bjornson Hall.

Moorman presented a report on the A.N.A. convention and the historic sights in Boston.

(Other members of the organization in Boston for the A.N.A. conclave included A. W. (Walt) Ritchie, Leo A. Young, Earl A. Parker, Robert G. McArthur, William H. Smith, Leonel C. Panosh, John Schreuder, Robert Johnson, Charles N. Peters, Arnold Rosing, Denel Goble.)

Exhibits honoring California from the days of '49 to the modern jet age were featured with an auction and refreshments.

Advance plans for the club's eighth annual Coinival Sunday, October 16, at the Oakland Boys' Club were announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert D. Eaton were honored at an earlier meeting of the club—they have gone to New Hampshire to reside.

A dinner at Robin Hood Inn preceded the meeting; later a review of Eaton's full life were presented in "This Is Your Life" style, conducted by Robert G. McArthur, first East Bay president.

His activities included secretary at the Oakland Boys' Club and his work with youth during nearly half a century, his athletic prowess, his three years as president of the East Bay club during which the Coinival was born and "Member of the Year" award was established.

Eaton was presented with a plaque signifying distinguished service to the East Bay Coin Club and numismatics in general.

Kelly Day, the junior president, officiated at the business session. Exhibitors, included Kelly Day,

Checks Stolen In Coin Loot

Henry B. Decker, Avalon Stamp and Coin Shop, Los Angeles, reports his entire roll stock of coins plus bid board lots, other coins and change in the cash drawer were taken from his business recently.

No stamps were taken, according to Decker, but the thieves took all his cancelled checks dating back a year.

He theorized the burglars may have wanted his signature—H. B. Decker or Henry B. Decker; he has given his bank a new signature, however.

Decker said his store is wired with a burglar alarm.

A $2,000 coin collection was stolen from the west Crewe (Va.) residence of T. Glenn Leath.

The theft was discovered following the family's return from a vacation trip.

Paso Robles, Calif., police report a wrapper believed to have come from the coin collection taken from the Stanley Poole residence was discovered near the home. The collection is still missing.

A burglar who worked by candlelight took a coin collection and two violins valued at $1,200 from the Westwood (Calif.) home of Louis Kievman.

James Demos, 18, and Charles Schaefer, 20, Chicago, were arrested in connection with the theft of a small coin collection from Mrs. Carol Jones 25. She lives in a basement apartment at the Schaefer home.

Rare coins were included in the loot taken from the cash register of the Pimpao's Food Store, 500 Magnolia avenue, Elizabeth, N. J.

Club Plans To Go Western

A variety program is in store for members of the North American Aviation Stamp and Coin Club in Los Angeles, Calif., October 3—there will be a colored film, "Northwest Wonderland," with emphasis on the west for exhibits.

Several silver dollar collections will be on display and the Oregon centennial medal collection John Parrish, program coordinator for the club, acquired at the 1959 convention in Portland will be shown.

One of the members of the board, Ed Payne, a gun collector, will have a portion of his western guns on exhibit.

The "Northwest Wonderland" film will be shown through special arrangements by Parrish with the public relations department of the Richfield Oil Corp.

Parrish announces that the North American Aviation recreation department is sponsoring a plant-wide hobby and special interest show in November with the stamp and coin club to participate and display many of its collections.

Plans are in the making for the Christmas celebration of the club, according to Parrish, who said this is an annual affair for the organization.

Al Risi, club president, announces that stamps, coins and a television set will be special gifts at the Christmas party along with holiday refreshments and entertainment.

Californian In New Store

Guy DeWolf has moved his coin and stamp store to new and larger quarters at 509 S. Hill street, Oceanside, Calif.

The move came after DeWolf accumulated larger stock; there was also need for a more centralized location.

The large modern store has plenty of parking space, DeWolf points out.

He bought out a northern California dealer before the move, and his large stock is displayed in new showcases on new shelves.

Although he has been in business in Oceanside for less than a year, DeWolf says his operation has grown fantastically.

One of DeWolf's services to his clients is the publication of the Oceanside-Carlsbad Coin Monthly, distributed free to regional clubs, Camp Pendleton collectors, mail order buyers across the nation and to dealers and collectors in San Diego. He distributes at his place of business, too.

Nepal Leads World In Low Mintage Figures

Six Hundred Coins Show Low Mintage

What's the scarcest coin recently minted in the world?

In 1956 Nepal struck two pieces each of the one and the one-half ashrafi. Nepal, it appears, is the leader in very low mintages. It has made 13 different coins of less than 101 pieces.

As Americans become enraptured with the multimillion issues of the Philadelphia and Denver mints, many collectors are looking to the foreign nations for new interest.

Collectors are finding it there, with interest in the variety, in the scarcity, and in the beauty of the current coins of the world.

Coin World presents a table of the coins of the world by the number minted.

Included are all coins of less than one million mintage — an even six hundred of them. The table covers a period of 1950 to 1958. These are the latest figures available published in the Annual Report of the Director of the Mint where this information was obtained.

The low mintages in many instances are the results of special issues. Included in this are presentation sets, proof sets, and, of course the Maundy money of Great Britain.

In other cases particularly for the smaller nations, an annual coinage of less than one million is sufficient for its economic needs.

The coins are struck by 52 coinage mints currently in operation for the 116 coin-issuing countries outside of Russia and the satellite countries. They do not release the coinage figures.

A world-wide coinage report was published in the July 28 issue of Coin World.

New Series Of Currency Resulted From Gold Rush

It is doubtful that James W. Marshall, as he sighted down a new piece of lumber at the site of his California saw mill that January morning, knew he was about to start a furor and a rush and even a new series of currency!

Marshall and his partner, Captain John A. Sutter, were hard at work erecting a new saw mill on the American river, a branch of the Sacramento, near Coloma, California, on January 24, 1848, when gold was discovered!

This launched the famous California gold rush, which according to an occasional modern-day tourist, has never ceased, what with the freeway traffic and all . . .

Imagine the chorus of clanking gold coins — for that was the only kind of money there was — from a populace that went to 379,994 in 1860 from only 92,597 in 1850!

Pockets of the new California residents sagged with the heavy gold coinage. Business increased and the harried bankers could find no solution to speed the counting and transaction of the vast quantities of awkward coinage.

Issuance of the National Gold bank notes of California was the answer when congress had studied the problem, and in the act of July 12, 1870, nine California banks and one in Boston were authorized to issue and circulate currency redeemable in gold coin.

Some authorities question as to whether the Boston bank — the Kidder National Gold bank — ever did issue any of the gold notes since none are in existence today.

Collectors of currency consider the National Gold bank notes of California beautiful as well as fascinating with their gold-hued paper, and their faithful reproductions of American gold coins from one to 20 dollars on the reverse.

The obverse bear the beautiful Americana vignettes relating to this nation's history, borrowed from the first charter period National bank notes.

Denominations of the notes ranged from five to 500 dollars. Text of the obligation on the notes (the bank, and not the government, bore this responsibility read:

"This note is secured by bonds of the United States deposited with the U. S. Treasurer at Washington. The bank will pay — dollars to bearer in gold coin on demand. This note is receivable at part in all parts of the United States in payment of all taxes and excises and all other dues to the United States except duties on imports, and also for all salaries and other debts and demands owing by the United States to individuals, corporations and associations within the United States, except interest in public debt."

The fact that the National Gold bank notes were a success and a fine solution to the problem of the heavy gold coinage is attested to by the fact that very few if any of the notes are in new condition—even fine condition is almost extinct.

The 500 notes were issued by two San Francisco banks and one in Sacramento. Other banks were located at Santa Barbara, Petaluma, Oakland, San Jose, Stockton.

These national gold bank notes of California bear vignettes representing Columbus sighting land, and the introduction of an Indian princess—similar to those used on the $5 notes of the first charter period of national bank notes. The wording, however, on the gold notes refers to gold coin. In this group of coins on the reverse are seen one, two and a half, three, five, $10 and $20 gold pieces.

Rich Pickings In Newfoundland!

Wayne L. Jacobs, Rollingdam, New Brunswick, Canada, won second prize in the annual Canadian Bulletin article contest with his story, "Numismatists Discover Newfoundland."

Articles used during the year in Marles and Co. Canadian Bulletin were judged by three Calgary collectors, Fred C. Smith, Sherbrooke, won first prize; his article was carried last week in Coin World.

Jacobs' winning contribution is as follows:

NUMISMATISTS DISCOVER NEWFOUNDLAND

By Wayne L. Jacobs

Until just recently Newfoundland was the unknown country, at least as far as the majority of numismatists were concerned.

A few years ago, the collectors' main object was American coins and now the general cry is "get on the Canadian bandwagon!"

I say go a little ahead and get on the Newfoundland "band wagon," before speculators drive the prices beyond the collectors' reach.

There are a good many reasons why Newfoundland coins are attracting the attention of Mr. Average Collector. The first is the beauty of the coins. They were excellently minted and, on close examination of an uncirculated coin, one may see a wealth of minute details.

The second reason is the almost total absence of "stumbling blocks" in the series—short of the gold pieces, probably the 1885 large cent and five cent fish-scale and 196 five cent piece will give the most trouble but no coin is virtually impossible to obtain.

The third reason appeals to the collector who reads the mint figures—mint figures do have a bearing on rarity.

Well, Newfoundland will astound you!

Suppose I were to collect only Newfoundland coins with a mint figure of 500,000 or under! I would be short of the entire Newfoundland series by only six coins, of which five are cents!

While we're on the subject of mint reports: There are an estimated 5,000,000 collectors of American money—let's say a number of these are also collectors of Canadian (and Newfoundland) coins; enough so that combined with our native collectors there are a million collectors of Canadian coins.

Also suppose each of these takes it into his head that he wants, say, a 1946-C Newfoundland 10 cent piece (there are 38,400 in existence. Then, there would be enough dimes so that a specimen would go to one collector in 27. (A lesson in supply and demand.)

This particular dime still costs only about one dollar in fine condition. I state this instance only because it is typical of most Newfoundland coins.

So much for ordinary coins. If you collect varieties there are 64 Newfoundland coins that have varieties (that are so far listed).

Tokens? There are a half dozen recognized ones and one has varieties. Medals? Three were recognized by Carmichael's in 1957.

Want to get off the beaten track—if you can afford it, that is? Then collect Newfoundland patterns. They are said to be the world's most beautiful coins. Two dollar patterns were put out in 1865, 1870 and 1890 and a complete set of patterns in 1864.

A Newfoundland dime was put out in 1871, but there are very few of them if it is not unique.

So far, I've said a lot "for" and not much "against." That's because there isn't much "against"—yet. Interest is picking up in Newfoundland coinage. In 1960's catalog nearly all Newfoundland coins are up in price—some are double!

The time to buy is now and whether you're a collector who makes money or a speculator who has fun, you'll have a ball with Newfoundland coins!

The Romance of MONEY

By Ted Hammer

Why no commemorative coin was issued for the 1918 armistice that ended World War I is a major mystery. Commemorative coins had been issued for centuries in Europe, with the Germans especially noted in this department. The Germans even issued commemoratives for local shooting festivals or harvests.

Americans did not get into the commemorative coin business until 1892 when the Columbus half dollar was struck in connection with the World's Fair in Chicago. This coin was issued again in 1893, when the Isabella quarter also was issued for sale at the fair.

The Lafayette dollar was issued in 1900, bearing portraits of Washington as well as the Frenchman to whom America owes so much. There was a Panama-Pacific Exposition half dollar in 1915, and the Lincoln (Illinois centennial) half of 1918, marking admission of Illinois to the union a century earlier. Gold commemoratives were issued in 1903, 1904 and 1915.

Unfortunately, most of the commemorative coins of the United States were issued for state or local anniversaries or events. Nearest thing to a coin marking the end of World War I hostilities is the peace dollar which originated in 1921.

The American Numismatic Assn. adapted a resolution in 1920 urging a "Commemorative peace coin." Through efforts of this association of coin collectors—a non-profit corporation chartered by Congress—the peace dollar was minted.

A half dollar was considered for a while, but the silver dollar was decided upon because the larger coin provided greater artistic latitude. Object of the coin was for a circulating medium to commemorate the declaration of peace between the Allied nations and German government.

Eight medalists competed for the award for the dollar design. The winning design was submitted by Anthony de Francisci, being accepted Dec. 19, 1921. Mint and treasury officials really "got crackin'" because 1,006,473 of the coins were minted before the year's end. The coins were placed in circulation Jan. 3, 1922. The peace dollar, becoming famous around the world, was minted until 1935.

Schulman Visits Danish Home

Hans M. F. Schulman paused long enough in his globe-trotting recently to pose for a photograph in front of the fabulous collection of Kai Meyer, Copenhagen, Denmark, viewed by Schulman during an early summer visit there. Schulman's column in Coin World of Thursday, August 11, described the Meyer numismatic basement in their suburban home as a "thrill." Some of the "decorations galore," as he termed them, may be seen in the background.

REPORTS on C.N.A. and A.N.A. CONVENTIONS

I attended both the Canadian Numismatic Association convention in Sherebrooke, Canada, and the American Numismatic Association convention in Boston. It made me feel that numismatics and collecting is coming back to normal again and those who got burnt on buying at high prices or speculative items now know the true numismatic items. Now, watch the prices on numismatic material come back to normal standard and mutually educationally ways!

America's First Family Of Coin Albums . . .

THE LIBRARY OF COINS

Complete visibility and complete protection, the two most-wanted features of a coin album, are presented for the first time by THE LIBRARY OF COINS. Bound like books, handsome and compact, each Library of Coins volume displays and protects its coins between two sliding panels of clear, tough plastic. Each coin "porthole" has printed next to it full data on mint mark and quantity minted. Each volume contains a brief background story on the coins, giving both the novice and advanced collector helpful information, including a listing of the rare dates.

Measuring 8¼" x 6¼", the volumes are low priced, sturdily manufactured, and permanently bound in a variety of identifying colors for the various denominations. Their compact size permits the storing of a large coin collection in very small space. Backbones are clearly gold stamped so that they are as readily identifiable as are books.

The Library of Coins represents the first major innovation in high grade coin albums in more than 30 years, and was several years in development. Designed by numismatists, the Library of Coins is designed to satisfy the needs and desires of numismatists. Write for descriptive circular on the Library of Coins.

Our albums, books and medals are available at your local coin dealer, stamp dealer, book store, hobby shop or at department store counters.

Dealers are invited to send for our Wholesale Price List, using their business stationery and furnishing suitable credit references as to their commercial status.
